VISION

A professional, productive and responsive Public Service and administration

MISSION

- 1) Establish norms and standards to ensure that the state machinery functions optimally and that such norms and standards are adhered to;
- 2) Implement interventions to maintain a compliant and functioning Public Service;
- 3) Promote an ethical public service through programmes, systems, frameworks and structures that detect, prevent and combat corruption; and
- 4) Contribute towards improved public administration in Africa and internationally through dialogue and sharing of best practices.

LEGISLATIVE MANDATE

The Department of Public Service and Administration draws its mandate from Section 195(1) of the Constitution, which sets out basic values and principles that the public service should adhere to, and the Public Service Act (PSA) of 1994, as amended.

- 1) In terms of the Public Service Act (PSA) of 1994, as amended, the Minister for the Public Service and Administration is responsible for establishing norms and standards relating to;

- a) The functions of the public service;
- b) Organisational structures and establishments of departments and other organisational and governance arrangements in the public service;
- c) Labour relations, conditions of service and other employment practices for employees;
- d) The Health and wellness of employees;
- e) Information management;
- f) Electronic government in the public service;
- g) Integrity, ethics, conduct and anti-corruption in the public service; and
- h) Transformation, reform, innovation and any other matter to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of the public service and its service delivery to the public.

According to Section 41 of the Public Service Act, the Minister may, subject to the Labour Relations Act and any collective agreement, make determinations regarding the conditions of service of employees generally or categories of employees, including determinations regarding salary scales and allowances for particular categories of employees.

All collective agreements concluded at the Public Service Coordinating Bargaining Council (PSCBC) are deemed to be determinations made by the Minister in terms of Section 3(5) of the Public Service

Act and the Minister is empowered further to issue directives to elucidate or supplement such determinations .allowances for particular categories of employees.
