For Immediate Release
Date: 17 June 2022

Deputy Minister Pilane-Majake to launch the 2022 Africa Public Service Week

The Deputy Minister for the Public Service and Administration, Dr Chana Pilane-Majake will on Monday 20, June 2022, launch the Africa Public Service week, setting-off the continental programme's weeklong annual celebrations.

The virtual launch will serve as a precursor to a series of events which start on 20 June and end 24 June 2022 hosted by various government departments across the country as part of the continental programme.

This year's continental celebrations will be held under the theme: “Rebuilding the State and restoring trust and pride by tackling human capital development challenges for social and economic development”.

The launch will engage on the sub- theme: “building public value and trust for active citizenship and social partnering” – focusing amongst others at:

- The importance of values and principles framework derived from the constitution;
- The Africa Charter on values and principles of Public Service and Administration;
- African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) country report;
