

MINISTRY
PUBLIC SERVICE AND ADMINISTRATION
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MEDIA ADVISORY

23 May 2023

Deputy Minister for Public Service and Administration, Dr Chana Pilane-Majake will tomorrow launch the Thusong Service Centres Status Report

Thusong Service Centres (TSCs) were established in 1999 to provide interdisciplinary one-stop government services and information stations closer to communities. The intention was to avail Accessible Service Delivery to Citizens.

The Department of Public Service and Administration conducted an onsite assessment of Thusong Service Centres across nine provinces.

The Deputy Minister of Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs (COGTA), Mr Parks Tau and the Deputy Minister of Communications and Digital Technologies, Mr Mohlopi Phillemon Mapulane, as partner departments in the management of these Centres, will join Dr Pilane-Majake for the official launch of the assessment report on Thusong Service Centres toward more improved, effective and efficient TSCs

Event Details:

Date: 24 May 2024

Time: 8:00 – 10:00

Venue: Batho Pele House, 556 Edmond Street, Arcadia

To RSVP Contact:

Mr Dudley Moloi, Dudley@dpsa.gov.za, 0724209946

Media enquiries: Mr Moses Mushi, Director of Communication, Department of Public Service and Administration, MosesM@dpsa.gov.za, 0829726595

About the Deputy Minister:

The Deputy Minister is committed to driving social transformation and community empowerment through effective policies and collaborative efforts.

Issued by the Department of Public Service and Administration