(e) by the deletion of subsection (4);

(f) by the substitution for paragraph (b) of subsection (5) of the following paragraph:

“(b) If an officer who is deemed to have been so discharged, reports for duty at any time after the expiry of the period referred to in paragraph (a), the [Commission] relevant executing authority may, on good cause shown and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, [recommend that, subject to the approval of the relevant executing authority, he or she be reinstated] approve the reinstatement of that officer in the public service in his or her former or any other post or position [on such conditions as the Commission may recommend], and in such a case the period of his or her absence from official duty shall be deemed to be absence on vacation leave without pay or leave on such other conditions as the [Commission may recommend] said authority may determine.”; and

(g) by the deletion of subsection (6).

Substitution of section 18 of Act promulgated under Proclamation 103 of 1994, as amended by section 32 of Act 38-of 1994

15. The following section is hereby substituted for section 18 of the principal Act:

“Inefficient officers

18. (1) If a head of department reports to an executing authority that an officer, other than a member of the services or an educator or a member of the Agency or the Service, in the department concerned is, in the opinion of the head of department, unfit for his or her duties or incapable of carrying them out efficiently, the said authority may appoint an officer to inquire into the relevant allegations.

10

(2) The officer who is to conduct the inquiry shall, in consultation with the head of department, determine the time and place of the inquiry, and the head of department shall give the officer concerned reasonable notice in writing of the said time and place and furnish him or her with a statement in writing setting out the grounds on which he or she is alleged to be unfit for his or her duties or incapable of carrying them out efficiently.

15

(3) The head of the department may authorise any person—

20

(a) to attend the inquiry;

(b) to adduce evidence and arguments in support of the allegations contemplated in subsection (2); and

(c) to cross-examine any person who has given evidence in rebuttal of the said allegations.

25

(4) The provisions of section 23(1), (2)(b) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis to the inquiry, and for that purpose a reference in section 23(1) and (3) to the presiding officer shall be construed as a reference also to an officer appointed under subsection (1) and a reference in section 23(1) and (2)(b) to the investigating officer shall be construed as a reference also to a person authorised under subsection (3).

30

(5) At the inquiry the officer concerned shall have the right to be present, to be assisted or represented by another person, to give evidence and, either personally or through a representative—

(a) to be heard;

35

(b) to call witnesses;

(c) to cross-examine any person called as a witness in support of the allegations contemplated in subsection (2); and

(d) to have access to documents produced in evidence.

(6) The officer conducting the inquiry shall keep a record of the proceedings at the inquiry and of all evidence given thereat.

40

(7) At the conclusion of the inquiry the officer conducting the inquiry shall—

(a) find whether or not the officer concerned is unfit for his or her duties or incapable of carrying them out efficiently;

45

(b) inform that officer of his or her finding; and

(c) report to the head of department on the result of the inquiry.

(8) (a) If the officer conducting the inquiry has found that the officer concerned is unfit for his or her duties or incapable of carrying them out efficiently, the latter officer may, within 14 days after the day on which he or she was informed of that finding, submit to the head of department representations in writing regarding the steps which may be taken under paragraph (b).

50

(b) After having considered the documents relating to the inquiry and any representations submitted to him or her, the head of department may—

55

(i) take no further steps in the matter;

- (ii) transfer the officer concerned to another post for which he or she is suitable or direct that he or she be employed additional to the fixed establishment;
- (iii) reduce his or her salary or grade or both his or her salary and his or her grade to such extent as the head of department may determine;
- (iv) take the steps contemplated in subparagraph (ii) as well as the steps contemplated in subparagraph (iii); or
- (v) discharge him or her from the public service with effect from such date as the head of department 'may determine.

(c) The head of department shall as soon as possible inform the officer concerned in writing of the decision taken by the head of department under paragraph (b) and of that officer's right of appeal in terms of subsection (9).

(9) (a) The officer concerned shall have the right to appeal to the relevant executing authority against the finding that he or she is unfit for his or her duties or incapable of carrying them out efficiently or against the decision of the head of department, or against that finding as well as that decision within 21 days after the day on which he or she was informed of that decision.

(b) If the officer concerned notes an appeal in terms of paragraph (a), the decision of the head of department shall not be implemented before the disposal of the appeal.

(10) After having considered the documents relating to the appeal, the executing authority may—

(a) in the case of an appeal against the finding that the officer concerned is unfit for his or her duties or incapable of carrying them out efficiently—

- (i) dismiss the appeal and confirm that finding; or
- (ii) uphold the appeal wholly or in part and set aside or vary that finding;

(b) in the case of an appeal against the decision of the head of department—

- (i) dismiss the appeal and confirm that decision; or
- (ii) uphold the appeal wholly or in part and set aside or vary that decision, or substitute for that decision such other decision as the head of department, in the opinion of the executing authority, ought to have taken.

(11) The executing authority shall cause the officer who noted an appeal and the head of department to be informed in writing of its decision on the appeal.

(12) The procedure at any inquiry, the documents to be submitted to the head of department or the executing authority, the manner in which and the time within which such documents shall be submitted and the procedure at any appeal shall be as prescribed."
