Invitation to the Meeting of the OECD Working Party on Open Government in Seoul, Korea

Dear Dr Patrick M Sokhela,

The OECD Innovative, Digital and Open Government (INDIGO) Division is pleased to invite you to the upcoming 7th Meeting of the Working Party on Open Government “Open government for stronger democracies and increased trust”. The event will take place in Seoul, Korea on 4-5 September 2024 and will open with an Open Government Symposium, organised by the Government of Korea.

Moreover, we are glad to announce that the annual meeting of the Innovative, Digital and Open Government (INDIGO) Network in Southeast Asia will take place back-to-back with the Working Party, also in Seoul, Korea on 3 September 2024. We warmly invite you to take part in both events to take advantage of this opportunity to exchange with OECD Members and non-OECD Members on good practices and lessons learned in this area.

Should you need a visa for your travel, please consider this letter your formal invitation.

For additional information, please contact Ms. Emma Cantera emma.cantera@oecd.org and Ms. Marie Whelan marie.whelan@oecd.org.

We look forward to your participation in the meeting.

Yours sincerely,

David Goessmann
